

A Message from the President

"Making optimism a way of life can restore your faith in yourself." Lucille Ball

June is a time for pause from the everyday, vacate your mind of all of the negativity, and replace your pessimistic thoughts with dreams. The MK Mueller event fulfilled its mission by raising awareness of EWI, providing meaningful professional development, and providing a positive message. Embracing "The Habits of Happiness" and "Taking Care of Me" are principals to live with the rest of our lives. For me, not only have I made a point to be grateful, but I have begun to dream about possibilities in my life.

Turning 50 must do something to you. Several weeks ago I began the process of evaluating my personal and professional priorities, and have begun thought about intentionality in my life. I am pages into the Life Planning Toolkit introduced to me over five years ago in my EMBA class. The life planning exercises help to elicit passion, positivity, and adventure into one's life by mapping personal priorities (mine are Spiritual, Work and Career, Health, Personal Finance, Family & Friends, Hobbies & Community) finding points of commonality in goals, but more importantly, helping to not allow importance in one area to eliminate possibilities in another without intentionally doing so. I have found that the points where my goals in each area intersect are when I am the happiest.

The toolkit discusses committing your goals and priorities to writing. It stresses it's importance in five key ways:

1. It will force you to clarify what you want.
2. Written goals motivate you to take action.
3. It will help you to evaluate extraneous opportunities and how they will impact your priorities.
4. It helps to combat and overcome areas weakness – outside resistance to your goals.
5. It enables you to see and celebrate your progress.

Life is hard, especially if you feel that you are working yourself to death, going nowhere meaningful. Consider MK's message, become intentional, and begin the process of "Taking Care of Me".

Executive Advisory Board

As we began this current year focused on updating and renovating EWI - Wichita, many of the changes were developed at the directives enumerated in the EWI Standards of Excellence. As part of this process, we are actively seeking Executives who may be willing to serve on the EWI Wichita - Executive Advisory Council.

EWI recognizes the importance of firm executives in the ongoing success of its chapters. This board is to provide advice and recommendation to the Chapter Board of Directors in the areas of leadership, chapter growth, community outreach, fiscal responsibility, and professional development.

The Executive Advisory Board is to be comprised of at least three member firm executives whose primary responsibilities are to:

- Provide advice on leadership best practices
- Support the chapter's philanthropic and educational efforts in the community
- Provide input on investment decisions for the EWI Wichita Scholarship Funds
- Be willing to reach out to peers to help promote EWI, recruit speakers, and grow membership
- Provide guidance and recommendations on chapter issues as requested by the board

I would anticipate attendance requirements at two EWI board meetings each year, so there would be necessary engagement. Other chapters have guidelines that call for terms of three years, and I would see us similarly engaged.

If you represent your firm as the executive/representative or have an executive who would like to be involved in this capacity, please call Jennifer Stephens, EWI 2013/2014 Chapter President, for particular information.

EWI Wichita Member Firm News

Star Lumber Celebrating 75!

On May 31st, Star Lumber celebrated its 75th Anniversary in business. Founded in 1939 by Earl and Mathilda Goebel, this family business is now in its fourth generation of ownership—something rare in family business dynamics. While its flagship store has resided at the corner of Maple and West in Wichita since the beginning, its product lines and focus have reacted to changes in the industry.

Since the beginning the Goebels have surrounded themselves with outstanding employees who share their vision and values, and care about the customers and communities in which they serve. With locations in Wichita, Manhattan, Topeka, and Oklahoma City the Star Family of stores is honored to share their success by pledging volunteer and financial support to many worthwhile events and causes in these communities.

To celebrate their 75th year, the Goebel Family has sponsored the Cottonwood Corner Habitat of Humanity Village, underwriting the land purchase and constructing and dedicating the final home in the neighborhood on May 23rd.

Creative Thinking – Commerce Bank

John Clevenger
President, Chairman
& CEO

Firm joined in 2001

When asked the question....

“How do you encourage creative thinking within your organization?”

Mr. Clevenger responded:

Fostering creative thinking in a bank setting might seem to be a bit oxymoronic. There are certainly days when I find myself wondering if it's possible given the current regulatory landscape. But, then we have a great idea bubble up and I realize we bankers can be pretty creative at times. In my opinion, there are two keys to having creativity throughout Commerce Bank of Wichita. First, we strive to have an organization that knows it does not have all of the answers all of the time. In other words, when we are at our best we are open to change and the creativity that drives it. Second, we try to have all of our employees be engaged with our bosses: our customers. Most of the really great ideas have come from bankers working with customers and thinking about how we could do a better job for them, or how we could make our bankers better prepared to serve them. So, in short, we try to be open to new ideas that come from our bankers' knowledge of their customers.

About John Clevenger:

Born and raised in Topeka, KS, John graduated from Princeton University in 1990 with an AB in English. While at Princeton, John played left tackle on the 1989 Ivy League Champion football team. He joined Commerce Bank in St. Louis as a management trainee, later becoming a commercial banker. In 1993, he left Commerce Bank to attend Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. After Kellogg, he was a management consultant for A.T. Kearney focusing mostly on performance enhancement projects at large bank-holding companies and retailers. In 1996, he rejoined Commerce Bank in Wichita where he is currently President, Chairman & CEO.

John's civic involvement includes serving on the Catholic Charities Board of Trustees, Wesley Medical Center Board of Directors, Wichita Metro Chamber of Commerce Leadership Council and Newman University Board of Trustees.

About Commerce Bank:

Commerce Bank of Wichita is a $900 million deposit bank with 13 locations in south central Kansas. Commerce Bank Wichita is a unit of Commerce Bancshares, Inc., a $23 billion asset bank holding company with 358 banking locations in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Colorado and Oklahoma.

For the fifth year in a row, Forbes magazine has ranked Commerce Bank among America's best banks, with a ranking of 10th in 2014. Commerce Bank's Super-Community approach is based on the following:

- Relationship-based sales strategy driven by our customer promise to ask, listen and solve.
- High-performing teams supported by a commitment to talent development.
- Investment in distinctive, high-return businesses.
- Long history of top-quartile credit quality metrics
- Disciplined approach to acquisitions
- Ongoing focus on improvement in operational efficiency.

Kim Weprin – Vice President/President Elect

It may be early June, but summer seems to already be in full force! I hope everyone is getting a chance to spend some time enjoying the sun. This month finds me working on our presentation for Wild West Forum at the end of the month. Jenny & I were excited to get the topic of social media/website. We made great strides with both in the past year, and have a lot to share with other chapters. We're looking forward to hearing Wendy Cowley speak at WWF, as well.

We already have 7 people signed up for LCAM! We would love to have more, so if you're interested, make sure you register before July 31, and it will cost $700. After July 1st it goes up to $800. If you plan to attend, please let me know so I can include you on any LCAM planning meetings we have prior to the conference.

Greetings! So much has happened since last reporting. Most importantly, scholarship applicants have been judged and winners have been determined, and a Reading Rally date has been confirmed. Please mark your calendars and plan to participate in the following:

- Wed., July 23 – EWI Executive Night – Scholarship Recipients Introduced
- Wed., Oct. 1 – Reading Rally

Committee chairs, Lisa Capps and Marcy Ray have done a tremendous job in accomplishing all the tasks associated with the naming of Wichita's EWI 2014 scholarship winners. Thank you so much!

May was a first for the Wichita chapter bringing in a nationally recognized speaker and workshop presenter - MK Mueller. Many thanks to all of the committee members who volunteered to help with registration. The process went smoothly because of these smart, organized and efficient ladies.

Soon we will turn our attention to helping Pam Fullinwider, Reading Rally chair, plan the annual Reading Rally. Please be thinking about what role you might be able to play in participating in the event. The Rally is an important component of EWI's focus on literacy, and the children of Colvin Elementary look forward to this each year. If you haven't volunteered for this event in the past, please consider doing so. It is a most heartwarming event, and the school's administration and teachers truly do appreciate that EWI has been a faithful partner in this endeavor for so many years.

Debbie Pfingsten – Communications Director

The communications team has been concentrating on delivering on our promise of media exposure to firms that have sponsored EWI events and meetings at various levels. While this keeps us busy it makes me grateful to be a part of an organization that is so vibrant and doing so much good in our community. I think our message for EWI is getting clearer and we are getting better at delivering it! The MK Mueller event was a great start to letting the community know who we are and what we are doing here.....let’s not lose the momentum we have gained from that. What is our dream for membership? What is our dream for our chapter in the community we serve? I think each one of us can help answer those questions and realize those dreams we have for EWI Wichita. Have a great start to your summer!
